

Frustrated by the way things are?

Want to help build a powerful movement to fight injustice and stop HIV/AIDS?

Join CHAMP's
Prevention Justice Seminar! (PJS)
application deadline: September 27

THE PJS is:

- a new, lively TRAINING COURSE looking at the history and realities of economics, politics, and social change movements in the United States... FREE OF CHARGE!
- the ONLY program bringing together HIV prevention issues with human rights, racial justice, sharp data analysis, and a willingness to challenge the "conventional wisdom" in order to craft new strategies for better policies in our next generation.
- a place to pull together the skills, passion and intelligence of people with HIV, community leaders and organizers, youth, students, service providers, thinkers and trouble-makers who want to increase our POWER to win REAL CHANGE

JOIN US THIS FALL!

Class will be held Monday & Wednesday, 6-9 pm (with dinner) from October 4 - November 22, at the Harm Reduction Training Institute, 22 W 27th St, Manhattan

Please note that this is an advanced course.

Applicants should have relevant training or experience in HIV/AIDS, community organizing and/or leadership skills.

To apply for the PJS or get more info, check out www.champnetwork.org and download an application, or call 212-966-0466 x 1206.

Please email, fax, or mail the completed application to Julie Davids at CHAMP by September 27, 2004.
